Una Voce Orange County Presents

Vespers for the Feast of All Saints

As Sung by the

Brothers of the Little Oratory

October 31, 2009 7 p.m. – 9 p.m.
Serra Chapel at Mission San Juan Capistrano

UVOC is pleased to present the Brothers of the Little Oratory from San Diego for the singing of the Divine Office of 1st Vespers for the Feast of All Saints at the historic Serra Chapel of Mission San Juan Capstrano.

Please join UVOC and the Brothers for a holy and memorable evening. For info, please email us secretary@uvoc.org or call (562) 691-5246.

N.B. The Brothers of the Little Oratory is a group of men that has the status of a confraternity. The first Little Oratory was formed by St. Philip Neri, and was made up of young men who went to Confession to him at the church of San Girolamo in Rome. They would meet in his room there for prayer and recreation, and for daily Mass and Confession.