Fifth Annual Fall Conference "Apostolic Administration – the Future of Traditional Catholicism?"

Una Voce of Orange County is pleased to present the Fifth Annual Fall Conference on Saturday, September 12th at the San Juan Capistrano Community Center at 25925 Camino del Avion, San Juan Capistrano, California.

Our Speakers

His Excellency Bishop Fernando Areas Rifan occupies the only See under a Personal Apostolic Administration, that of St. John Marie Vianney, in Campos, Brazil. After years of living in a community with a parallel structure to the Diocese Pope John Paul II in 2002 granted an Apostolic Administration to the traditional faithful of Campos, ending their irregular status within the Church.

President of Una Voce of America & Professor of History at St. John's University in New York, Dr. John Rao is a co-founder of the Dietrich von Hildebrand Institute, as well as a well-known author and lecturer.

Involved in parish work for the Claretian Missionaries for 17 years in Arizona, California, and Washington, Fr. Bishop has given parish retreats and missions since 1989 and regularly celebrates the Latin Mass for the in faithful in L.A.
